sewers in Bloomfield was the imout doubt this is so. We have now expended or will expend about $55,000 upon the joint outlet rewers, but before any practical benefit can be derived from that outlay, we must expend as individuals for lateral sewers and as a township for mains as much more.

This expenditure should be distributed over a period of five or ten years, and in that case would not be burdensome. The Committee have authority to proceed at once to construct the necessary main sewers of the township, and it is the opinion of the Committee that the main should Foster. be put down this season in Broad Street as far north as Belleville Ave. nue. This will be an expensive piece of work, on account of the depth necessary, an average of 26 feet below the street grade being required to the Committee. drain this section.

The lateral sewer pipes for side made: will be small and the laying inexpensive, being much hearer the surface. We understand that the direct assess ment upon property benefited will not exceed fifty cents per lineal foot. It is the opinion of citizens most in: terested in the growth, prosperity and health of the town that we cannot too soon get our sewers under way, and their construction finished. Our side streets need to be macadamized, but it is clearly a waste of money to expend it for paving before putting down the sewers. The last Township ! Committee anticipated this [and yorf] properly recommended but a small expanditure for road construction the John Weden, L. H. Shorter. present year.

Opening of Mechanic Street. This street, the ground for which was given many years ago, but which has never been opened and graded has become an urgent necessity. The attempt to obstruct a portion of the roadway by the erection of a platform and weighing apparatus within the line of the street has drawn at tention to it again, and a petition now in circulation asking the Town ship Committee to open the street.

In the meeting of the Township Committee last Monday Mr. Gilbert vigorously opposed the proposed en croachment upon the roadway, and the result was that the sanction of the township was not given, and the excavation, already made for the apparatus and platform, has since been filled up. We understand now that the scales will be erected on the railroad property, south of Glenwood Avenue. Mr. Gilbert is entitled to the appreciation of the public for taking the stand that he did in this matter. He said that the street was no place in which to erect and maintain a private convenience of this kind, and he was right.

A Lecture on Napoleon.

At the Glen Ridge Congregational Church this Saturday evening, May 12th, a rare treat will take place in a lecture by Chas H. Adams, of Philadelphia, on "Napoleo Bonaparte," illustrated by a superb collection of views.

Napoleon, his suppressing the mob in Paris, sion to erect a platform scale on his shining successes on many battlefields, Mechanic Street opposite the D. ### Third Ward Politics

Editor Record:

When the lines were made known which were to mark the boundaries of the Wards it was announced by some of those whose advice had not been accepted in the makeup, that the Third Ward was Democratic and we still hear it so asserted

After three years' experience what are the facts? We find that the Third Ward has given a good majority to all the Republican candidates who have been nominated ex-

At the first election after the division into Wards Mr. Edwin A. Rayner, Democrat, defeated the Republican candidate, Mr. C. W. Powers, by a vote of 275 to 165. This was no doubt due to the efforts made by th Glen Ridge end of the Ward, irrespective of party lines. At the expiration of his term Mr. Rayner was again elected by the same influences ; to quote from the circular you published a few weeks ago, which was issued in favor of his candidacy, "believing thereby the best interests of both the District and and Township will be served,"

At our last election Mr. Rayner was again the first time the representatives in the Chancemen, Charles Hummel, Township Committee from the Third Ward are of one political faith. This is as it should be; if party lines are to be drawn in own elections. That the majority of votes n the Third Ward are Republican needs no roof. The returns she gives are unanswerable. This being so, why do her representatives give their aid in favor of their political opponents? At the organization of the Fownship Committee for 1894 and '95 it is nominated a Democrat (no disrespect intended to ohe gentleman nominated) and that that upon a vote by ayes and nays both of members from the Third Ward had hemselves recorded as in favor of his elec-
